

Poundmaker Cree Nation Community Development Planning

Summary:

The Poundmaker Cree Nation is in the process of developing a community development plan through a comprehensive community planning (CCP) process for the future of the Nation. According to the Indigenous Services Canada CCP Handbook, "It enables the community to build a roadmap to sustainability, self-sufficiency and improved governance capacity through a holistic process. Sustainable development is the guiding principle of comprehensive community planning."

The CCP will address key areas in our community:

1. Governance;
2. Land and Resources;
3. Health;
4. Infrastructure Development;
5. Culture;
6. Social Issues;
7. Economy

Community Engagement:

All Members of PCN are invited to attend community engagement sessions that will be held on the Nation, Saskatoon, and Edmonton. All input is valuable and contributions to our future as a Nation.

- Elders
- Youth
- Community Members on and off the Nation

We will host community discussions and events and will inform members through this page, the Poundmaker Cree Nation webpage, posters, leadership, and moccasin telegraph.

Timeline:

March 31, 2020 – Draft Community Plan (based on funding)

What are the benefits:

- Empower the Nation and its Members

- Improve Performance
- Build Teamwork and Expertise
- Coordinate Future Development
- Protect Resources
- Celebrate Traditions and Culture
- Promote Healing and Reconciliation
- Create Economic Opportunities

CONTACT:

Email: communitydevelopment@poundmaker.ca or call the Poundmaker Band Administration at (306)398-4971.

Please note: This initiative is funded through Information Services Canada (ISC) and the information contained in this document is from the CCP Handbook through Indigenous Services Canada (ISC).